

Citizen Reporting Peer Exchange

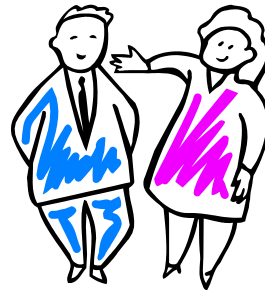

Please mute your phone lines to minimize background noise.

October 27, 2014 – 12:00PM to 2:00 PM (Central)

- Welcome and Introductions
- State Interests in Citizen Reporting
- Approaches to and Experiences with Citizen Reporting
- Discussion
- Wrap-Up

Welcome and Introductions

Welcome and Introductions

- North/West Passage
 - Transportation Pooled Fund 5(190) since 2003
 - States from WA to WI along I-90/1-94
 - States share common challenges
 - Commercial and recreational travel corridor
 - Extreme weather conditions
 - Road closures and transportation management
 - Develop effective methods for sharing, coordinating, and integrating traveler information and operational activities across borders

State Interests in Citizen Reporting

- North Dakota Department of Transportation
 - Brad Darr

- Minnesota Department of Transportation
 - Kelly Braunig

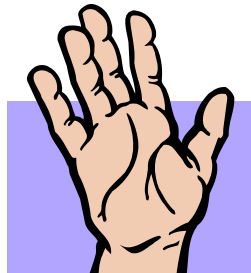

Approaches and Experiences

- Wyoming Department of Transportation
 - Vince Garcia

- Idaho Transportation Department
 - Tony Ernest

Discussion

Questions State by State
Start in Washington and Move East

- Other items of interest

- Social navigation app Waze unlocks commuter data (Connected Citizens)

- <http://www.cbsnews.com/videos/waze-navigation-app-teams-up-with-cities-states-to-share-traffic-data/>

- TMC Pooled Fund studying how crowd-sourced data is being applied at TMCs

- RFP issued in late September
 - Study expected to take approximately one year

- Brad Darr, NDDOT
 - 701-328-4443, bdarr@nd.gov
- Cory Johnson, MnDOT
 - 651-234-7062, coryj.johnson@state.mn.us
- Vince Garcia, WYDOT
 - 307-777-4231, vince.garcia@wyo.gov
- Tony Ernest, ITD
 - 208-334-8836, tony.ernest@itd.idaho.gov

www.nwpassage.info